PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the Production Center 1P1c.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

A double-fenced explosives storage site covering an area approximately 830 yards by 530 yards is located 5 kilometers (km) west-northwest of Stryy (Figure 1). This installation, which is serviceable and occupied, consists of nine dispersed explosives storage buildings, each road-served and with an adjoining hardstand. No blast protection walls or structures are observed. A guard hut is located near the entrance to the area (Figures 2 and 3). The site is served by a side road from the Stryy-Drogobych highway.

The installation did not change between [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] It probably is used to store explosives for the airfield at Stryy.
